

SAINT PETER'S ORPHANAGE

1805 POPLAR AVENUE • MEMPHIS 4, TENNESSEE

Laurel Jennifer Ley was born on July 16, 1960 at 7: 32 am. She weighed six pounds, twelve ounces, and was forty-eight centimeters long.

Laurie's natural mother was twenty-two years old, was of English-French extraction and was a Catholic. She was 5' 0" tall, weighed 119 pounds. She had fair skin, reddish-blond hair, and brown eyes. She was a very pretty young woman.

This young woman had completed nearly three years of College where she was particularly interested in Journalism, and the study of Psychology. She had been employed as a legal stenographer, but planned to return to school where she hoped to obtain a degree in Journalism. She enjoyed reading, writing, and was active in outdoor sports such as skiing and horseback riding.

The maternal grandfather was an Attorney, the grandmother, a housewife. There was one older sister who was in good health, as were all the rest of the family.

Laurie's natural father was twenty-eight years old at the time of her birth. He held a Bachelor of Science degree and was a practicing Attorney. He was of English extraction. He was 5' 9" tall, weighing about 160 pounds. He had blue eyes, dark hair, and olive complexion.

The paternal grandmother was living, the paternal grandfather having died from a heart attack. The natural father had one older sister. There was a negative health history in this family with the exception of the father's suffering from "hay fever".
